Essay Guidelines

The TCEC team work to embody 10 Essential Attributes that align with our values as a cooperative. These attributes are how we show up for our peers and members every day.

Your essay and application should demonstrate how you live out these values at home, school and in your community:

- Collaborative: Working together toward common goals
- Humble: Showing modesty while taking pride in your work
- Resilient: Adapting and overcoming challenges with grace
- Engaged: Demonstrating commitment to your community
- Trustworthy: Doing the right thing when no one's watching
- Empathetic: Understanding and supporting others' perspectives
- Responsible: Taking ownership of your actions and commitments
- Reliable: Following through consistently on your word
- Communicative: Listening actively and expressing yourself clearly
- Coachable: Being open to feedback and continuous learning

Future Focus: Explain how this shapes your future goals

Frequently Asked Questions

Eligibility

Q: Can I apply if I'm homeschooled?

A: Yes! You must meet the graduation and residency requirements and provide an official transcript.

Q: What types of schools can I attend with this scholarship?

A: Any accredited university, college, junior college, or technical school.

Q: Should I apply if my GPA is exactly 2.5?

A: Yes! Meeting the minimum makes you eligible. Focus on highlighting your strengths in other areas.

Application Process

Q: Can I save my application and finish it later?

A: No. The online application allows you to work on it in one session. We recommend preparing your answers in advance.

Q: Which essay prompt should I choose?

A: Choose the one that best showcases your experiences and demonstrates cooperative values. All prompts are equally weighted.

Q: What if I haven't done much community service?

A: It's not too late! Consider volunteering with local organizations or finding ways to help in your community before the deadline.

Q: How should my recommenders submit their letters?

A: They must submit directly via email to communications@tcectexas.com or by mail. They cannot submit through you. Make sure to give them your Submission ID!

Technical & Submission

Q: What if I submit my application and need to make changes?

A: Contact TCEC immediately at communications@tcectexas.com. Depending on timing, changes may or may not be possible.

Q: I'm having trouble uploading files. What should I do?

A: Contact communications@tcectexas.com for technical support. Don't wait until the deadline!

Q: What file formats are accepted?

A: PDF for documents (transcript, essay), JPEG or PNG for photos. Always include your first and last name at the beginning of each filename. Use clear labels: Transcript, Photo, Essay, etc. (Example: Beth_Jones_Transcript_2026)

Q: What if I didn't receive a confirmation email?

A: Check your spam folder first. If you still don't see it, contact communications@tcectexas.com.

Selection Process

Q: Who reviews the applications?

A: An independent third-party organization not affiliated with Tri-County Electric evaluates all applications to ensure fair and unbiased selection.

Q: What criteria are used to select winners?

A: Selection is based on academic achievement, community involvement, leadership experience, essay quality, and letters of recommendation.

Q: Is financial need a factor?

A: While the application includes financial information, awards are not solely based on need. The program considers academic achievement, community involvement, and leadership potential.

Awards & Funding

Q: Are these scholarships renewable?

A: These are one-time $5,000 awards.

Q: When will scholarship funds be distributed?

A: Funds are typically distributed directly to your educational institution. Specific timing will be communicated to winners.

Q: Will this scholarship affect my other financial aid?

A: It may impact your financial aid package. Consult with your school's financial aid office.
